

Metro Specification

Designed by Katerina Zachariades

Bold and contemporary, the Metro collection features an upholstered body with button back detail, a separate timber base and optional timber arms. A playful take on a mid-century style, the collection offers a lounge, high back wing chair and sofa with a timber base available in walnut, oak or beech polished to any of our standard finishes. The lounge chair is also available with wire sled and timber rocking base.

