

Paris Specification

Designed by Katerina Zachariades.

The Paris collection has been inspired by 1940's design and the traditional classic detailing of the period. The collection has been developed into a dining/meeting chair, offered with or without arms; a traditional wave shaped top edge, giving the chair a distinctive character.

