

Rio Table

An occasional table with a difference; the frame consists of a 3D printed polyamide element that links the timber turned legs to the top. A jewel like object, the polyamide creates a light, sculptural aesthetic while maintaining contract strength. Available in two height options, with either a clear glass, smoked glass, laminate or veneer top.

*Designed by Morgan Studio
& Studio INTEGRATE*

